

FIELDSTEM – DESIGNING FIELD INVESTIGATIONS

January 26, 2019 / 9:00a.m.—3:30p.m.

Pacific Education Institute invites you to join Karen Lippy for part two of our FieldSTEM professional development series.

Whether you are interested in providing a rich outdoor experience, concerned with how to help your students be prepared for state testing or field studies, or simply looking for a way to address sustainability standards, Designing Field Investigations will meet your needs.

Participants will:

- Develop their own field investigations, while focusing on teaching and assessing NGSS
- Receive mentored time to work on Field Investigation development
- Receive a copy of PEI's guide Field Investigations: Using Outdoor Environments to Foster Student Learning of Scientific Practices

FieldSTEM Series Workshops at Chief Leschi School:

- FieldSTEM ELA Performance Tasks: February 9, 2019

Lunch and snacks will be provided.
